ELK MOUNTAIN.

Plenty of snow on Elk Mountain and more falling at this writing. E. A. Anderson, one of our most prosperous ranchers, sold during the past week, to Arthur Whittle, 2000 acres, coming two years old, for $12,000.

Elmer and Chester McFetridge were over to the dance Friday night.

Bever Clark has been very poor with rheumatism during the past month.

The N. & N. Co. and J. E. Peterson will soon be running their new mills on full time. They have a large amount of logs in their yards ready to saw.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McFetridge and little daughter Bernice were over to the dance, Friday night.

Paul Butts, stockman for Mr. Hillman, was on Beaver Creek one day last week after two horses purchased of Millard McFetridge.

Mrs. Samuel Baker has been very much indisposed for the past few days.

Wren Roberts sold four head of horses to Millard McFetridge Monday.

One of the most enjoyable dances of the season was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Millard McFetridge, Friday night. A large number were present; Alvin McFetridge with the violin, George Richardson at the organ, Wren Roberts master of ceremonies, Joy, good will and good eyes reigned supreme from an early hour to dawn of day.

Refreshments in overflowing quantity and unexcelled quality were served at 1 o'clock, which were enjoyed equally as well as tripping the light fantastic. Mr. and Mrs. McFetridge are certainly unexcelled as host and hostess on such occasions as these.

Side lights: Arthur Haggerty has found a place to pasture his horses. Mr. Burleson is very fond of cake.

Elmer McFetridge would love to be assistant teacher in the Elk Mountain school. Pat Loftus is the champion pedro player.

FRANCHISES GIVEN TWO COMPANIES

Joseph, March 11.—At the special meeting of the council Thursday night, the mayor's veto of the Wallowa Lake Light & Power company's franchise was sustained, but an ordinance amended to meet most of the mayor's objections was introduced. An ordinance identical in its provisions granting the F. D. McCullough company a 30 year franchise was also introduced. Both ordinances were read twice and referred to the light committee. The committee reported favorably with minor amendments. As amended both were read the third time and passed by the full vote, six members, of the council.

MANY CAR LOAD LOTS RECEIVED AT ENTERPRISE

Charles and Harry Flathers, who recently purchased the Bookin stock ranch, a few miles north of Enterprise, brought in a car of stock and seed grain this week from their former home at Prescott, Wash. Among the stock were some broad mares and a fine young Bay Percheron stallion.

Riley and Day shipped car load of horses and mules Thursday. Mr. Day going along to take care of the stock.

S. D. Keltner, the hardware man, received a carload of barb wire and nails this week, and Mr. Keltner and the E. M. & M. Co. a car of shingles.

Enterprise is becoming noted all along the O. R. & N. line for car load shipments, both received and sent. These shipments will increase steadily, for time and experience proves this the natural distributing point for the great interior region and the North Country.
